

Tanner Aherin Receives 2016 Matthew Kent Stamper Memorial Scholarship

October 17, 2016 (MANHATTAN, Kan.) – Tanner Aherin of Phillipsburg, Kansas, a senior in agricultural economics at Kansas State University, has been awarded the Matthew Kent Stamper Memorial Scholarship through the Arthur Capper Cooperative Center and the Department of Agricultural Economics at Kansas State University.

Tanner is an active member of the K-State Livestock Judging team and is involved in the Block and Bridle Club. He was selected as a student fellow for the Center for Risk Management Education and Research and is a member in the National Society of Leadership in Success. Tanner was an Innovative Livestock Services intern with McClymont Feed Yard and owns his own livestock operation, including Gelbvieh cattle. Upon his May 2017 graduation, Tanner plans to continue his education by obtaining a master's degree in agricultural economics. He plans to have a career in the cattle feeding industry. The Aherin family is affiliated with the following cooperative: Golden Plains Credit Union.

The Matthew Kent Stamper Memorial Scholarship was established in honor of Matt Stamper who passed away in an automobile accident on May 23, 1999 just before his 22nd birthday. "The scholarship was established to honor and perpetuate the memory of Matt Stamper and to encourage an interest in the operation, management, and economics of agricultural cooperatives, beef production and grain production enterprises," states Professor Brian Briggeman, director of the Arthur Capper Cooperative Center. Over $57,000 in scholarships have been awarded from the fund since 2000.

To be eligible for the scholarship, a student must be either a junior or senior in K-State's College of Agriculture and be affiliated with a Kansas agricultural marketing, supply or service cooperative as a member or as a child or dependent of a member. Preference is given to a student from Rooks, or a surrounding county, interested in pursuing a career in production agriculture and who is enrolled in one of the following departments: Agricultural Economics; Animal Sciences and Industry; or Agronomy.

The Matthew Kent Stamper Memorial Scholarship is funded by contributions made to the Center's endowment fund with the KSU Foundation. "Additional contributions by those who want to honor Matthew and support the purposes of the scholarship are welcome," Dr. Briggeman said. They should be made payable to "KSU Foundation/Stamper" and sent to the Arthur Capper Cooperative Center, Department of Agricultural Economics, 305 Waters Hall, Kansas State University, Manhattan, KS 66506.

About the Arthur Capper Cooperative Center
