

LEADERSHIP SYMPOSIUM for COOPERATIVES

AUGUST 16-17, 2021

K-State Alumni Center - Manhattan, KS

As a stakeholder in the cooperative system, you and others in your organization, are invited to attend the Leadership Symposium for Cooperatives.

Registration is $195 per person and includes all materials, reception cocktails, lunch and breaks.

Together, the Arthur Capper Cooperative Center (ACCC) and the Kansas Cooperative Council (KCC) have partnered to present this combined program, the Leadership Symposium for Cooperatives.

Leading experts will share their thoughts and insights on future issues facing cooperatives, agronomy challenges, politics, changing environments, and the carbon market. Be sure to join us Monday afternoon as we kick off the event with Larry Hatteberg, long-time, award winning journalist and host of the popular KAKE and PBS television series, Hatteberg's People. In addition, Dan Meers, 2020 Super Bowl Champions Kansas City Chiefs mascot will share his inspirational story as the keynote luncheon speaker.

Who Should Attend? This educational program offers meaningful insights to anyone interested in cooperative issues, including co-op board members, management and employees. Others doing business with cooperatives, such as suppliers, attorneys, CPAs and financial partners will also benefit from attending.

The meeting registration deadline is August 2, 2021. You may register using the attached form or on-line at: <https://acc.k-state.edu/2021LeadershipSymposium.html>. Additional conference information, including hotel registration deadlines, may be found on the enclosed documents. Please note, attendees are responsible for making any necessary lodging arrangements.

We look forward to seeing you August 16th!
