

DID YOU KNOW?

The Arthur Capper Cooperative Center (ACCC) conducts cooperative research, education and outreach!

Dr. Brian Briggeman, K-State Dept. of Agricultural Economics Professor, serves as the ACCC Director and leads the program activities.

www.accc.ksu.edu

ACCC PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- Undergraduate Cooperative Management online course (AGEC 470) and Agricultural Finance (AGEC 513)
- Local Co-op Board Discussions/Retreats/Strategy Sessions for multiple Cooperatives
- Cooperative Fact Sheet Series
- Leadership Symposium for Cooperatives with the Kansas Cooperative Council
- Financial Benchmarking Tool for Local Cooperatives (CoBank partnership)
- Cooperative Map Project
- Cooperative Guest Lectures in KSU undergraduate classes
- Research and outreach publications, articles, posters and book chapters
- Outreach presentations
- Kansas Cooperative Council Advisory Member
- KCC Director Development Program Instructor
- Cooperative outreach programs and more

If you would like to have the ACCC engage with your cooperative, please contact Dr. Brian Briggeman at bbrigg@ksu.edu or 785-532-2573.

