

LEADERSHIP SYMPOSIUM for COOPERATIVES

AUGUST 12 - 13, 2024

K-State Alumni Center - Manhattan, KS

As a stakeholder in the cooperative system, you and others in your organization, are invited to attend the Leadership Symposium for Cooperatives.

Registration is $195 per person and includes all materials, reception cocktails, lunch and breaks.

Together, the Arthur Capper Cooperative Center (ACCC) and the Kansas Cooperative Council (KCC) have partnered to present this combined program, the Leadership Symposium for Cooperatives.

Join us for an exciting two-day event at the K-State Alumni Center in Manhattan, KS. On the first day, gain insights into the latest developments with an update on College of Agriculture Students at Kansas State University from Dr. Dan Moser, Professor & Associate Dean of Academic Programs. Get ready to be inspired by Donnie Campbell's talk, "What's Your MVP? Leadership Lessons from the Coach who Inspired Ted Lasso." Discover the secrets behind effective leadership and how you can apply them to your own cooperative setting.

The second day promises to be just as engaging, with an update on the happenings at both the Arthur Capper Cooperative Center and the Kansas Cooperative Council, followed by weather outlook from a renowned meteorologist, Gary Lezak. Next, several legislators have been invited to provide a policy update on crucial issues in Kansas politics. The event will conclude with a powerful talk by Judge Tommy B. Webb, Retired District Magistrate, 26th Judicial District Court of Kansas, titled "You Can Make a Difference."

Who Should Attend? This educational program offers meaningful insights to anyone interested in cooperative issues, including co-op board members, management and employees. Others doing business with cooperatives, such as suppliers, attorneys, CPAs and financial partners will also benefit from attending.

The meeting registration deadline is July 30, 2024. You may register using the attached form or on-line at: <https://accc.k-state.edu/2024LeadershipSymposium.html>.
